Rose Tourney Plans Promise Great Success

Annual Pasadena Event on New Year's Features Parade and Football

On the eve of completion of plans for the thirty-sixth annual Tournament of Roses Harry M. Tielker, chairman of the parade committee, announced today he is satisfied that the traditions of this organization, now entering its second generation of life, will be fully borne out on New Year's morning at 10:30.

When the entrancing column rounds into Colorado from Orange Grove at that hour, not less than one hundred decorated float entries carrying literally millions of California's choicest garden and hot-house blossoms will begin their measured course over the five-mile parade line.

College Colors
American Legion insignia, colors of Notre Dame and Leland Stanford Junior Universities, surrounded by national colors, will be the decorative motif in the street decoration, and buildings and store fronts along the line will be festooned with seasonal greenery and blooms, to which will be added a profuse display of flowers in the shop windows, a mark of esteem and honor to James A. Drain, national commander of the American Legion, who will review the parade from the Hotel Maryland grandcup to the most beautiful entry cup to the most beautiful entry in the American Legion division, which heads the parade.

In the civic and American Legion divisions outstanding features of the thirty-sixth tournament, stunning entries, including the following Southern California cities, will be seen: Ventura, Pasadena, Los Angeles, Long Beach, Santa Monica, Culver City, Corona, Covina, Anaheim, Hollywood, El Monte, Glendale, Avalon, Ontario, Upland, El Segundo, Pacific Palisades, and Redondo Beach. Municipal entries of Pasadena and other cities, a large and beautifully executed commercial division, one of the most notable equestrian sections yet seen in Southern California, and a division of Boy Scouts of America, are among the items which will gather enthusiastic comment from the 400,000 persons expected.

Game at 2:15
Stanford-Notre Dame will kick off at 2:15 in the Rose Bowl. From December 1, when the acceptance of applications for tickets began, to this time, there has been an incessant stream of purchasers, so that it is a foregone conclusion that a capacity crowd will fill the bowl.

Besides Commander Drain, former National Commander John R. Quinn, State Commander Nathan Coombs and Governor Friend Richardson will assist in reviewing the parade. Grand Exalted Ruler John G. Price of Columbus, O., national head of the Elks, and other national officers of the B. P. O. E., including several past grand exalted rulers, will also be personally honored guests of the tournament.

where they took the obligation of office. Mrs. Watson then installed Jean Guyan, worthy matron, and Persia H. Fess, associate matron.

F. L. Parks, retiring worthy patron, installed the incoming worthy patron, John R. Winters. After two piano solos by Mrs. A. Lewis-Schwarz of Los Angeles, Mrs. Fohl installed Rosearnold Winters, secretary; Juliette Johnson, treasurer; Loma Turner, conductress; May Tomkins, associate conductress; Alice Anderson, chaplain; Clemma Watson, marshal; Augusta Von Hagen, substituting for Lottie Zahradnik, organist; Lillian Shriner, warden; William Oetken, sentinel; Marcella Brumpton, Adah; Emma Briney, Ruth; Julia Neeldans, substituting for Carrie Parks, Esther; Alice Andrus, Martha; May McKinley, Electra.

Mrs. Thomas Willacy of Lomita then sang "The Star of Bethlehem" and "I Know a Lovely Garden."

After the installing marshal had proclaimed the officers installed, the retiring patron, F. L. Parks, presented Mrs. Watson with a past matron's jewel, and Mrs. Watson presented Mr. Parks with a past patron's jewel. These were gifts of the chapter.

Mrs. Parks presented Mrs. Watson with a beautiful copy of "Dawn," by Maxfield Parrish. During the evening Mrs. Watson wore a beautiful corsage bouquet of lavender orchids, a token of love and esteem from her officers of the past year.

Mrs. Fohl also carried an arm bouquet of ferns and rosebuds, the gift of the chapter.

Mrs. Guyan was presented with a handsome gavel by her patron, John R. Winters. She carried a beautiful arm bouquet.

Lottie Zahradnik was the installing organist and, as always, rendered appropriate and beautiful music during the ceremonies.

A large delegation of officers and members from Harbor Chapter, San Pedro; Carnation Chapter, Redondo; Gardena Chapter, and Pearl Chapter, Compton, were present.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. L. Wardall of Cypress street was the guest of Glendale friends Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Halladay of Oak street and Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Fuller of Narbonne avenue attended the Westlake M. E. church Sunday morning, and later were guests of Glendale friends.

TORRANCE NOTES

Miss Cora Hilton of Glendale was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Newby, Sunday.

Mrs. J. Lipton of Sartori avenue, who was operated upon at the Redondo-Hermosa hospital last week, is reported as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Flaherty of the Buick garage and Miss Ella Jones and Carl Schaffer were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nelms of Glenwood Terrace.

Mrs. Van Hoe and Mrs. Murthie.
